Having a new application platform, previous nominators will be asked to reset their password the first time they will log in for data security reasons (in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation). If new to the system, the nominator will need to create a user ID and password.

An application is considered complete only if it includes all the following documents:

- A brief explanation of why the nominator considers the candidate eligible for the L'Oréal-UNESCO For Women in Science International Awards (200-400 words).
- A suggested quotation for the general public if the candidate is selected. Nominations that are incomplete or received after Monday, 31 May 2021, as well as applications that do not meet the requirements mentioned above, will not be taken into consideration.

Nominations are valid for two Life and Environmental Sciences Awards cycles. Unsuccessful nominations submitted for the 2022 edition will be held on file and nominators will be invited to update their candidates' information when the next call for nominations for the International Awards in Life and Environmental sciences goes out (April 2023 for the 2024 edition).

5. Laureates' Selection

- Peer review pre-selection

Through a peer-review process, an experts' panel from a variety of disciplines in Life and Environmental sciences will examine all submitted nominations.

After the experts' evaluation, a shortlist of around 10 candidates per each of the 5 regions (no more than 50 candidates in total) will be sent for assessment to the For Women in Science International Jury in Life and Environmental sciences.

- Jury's selection

The For Women in Science International Jury in Life and Environmental sciences is chaired by Professor Brigitte Kieffer, Professor Dpt Psychiatry at McGill University Montreal Canada, INSERM Research Director in Strasbourg France and Member of the French Academy of Science, 2014 L'Oréal-UNESCO Laureate for Europe, and composed of distinguished members of the international scientific community.

The Jury will evaluate the nominees pre-selected by the peer reviewers, in accordance with the selection criteria mentioned in Paragraph 3.

For the Jury's deliberation, which will be held in September 2021, the Jury will review and discuss the best nominations for each region. The Jury will select the five Laureates by a majority vote. Its decision is final and without appeal. It cannot be contested or subject to explanation or justification.

The results will be communicated by phone to the Laureates a few days after the deliberation. They must remain confidential until the official announcement.

6. Laureates' commitments

Each Laureate will receive a €100,000 Award, which is presented personally to the Laureate, in recognition of her commitment and contribution to the advancement of scientific research.
